

A Heavenly Citizenship

The Fourth of July is one of my favorite days to celebrate. It is a day filled with memories of fireworks, meals, family, and a whole lot of fun. This day in our history as a nation is certainly one to be celebrated, and I am proud to be an American.

America, just like any other country, has had its struggles and growing pains. Today we are constantly reminded by media outlets how terrible everything is in this country. We look at our leadership and struggle to have any kind of hope for the future.

We could sit down and go back and forth talking about all kinds of different things that have attributed to this poor outlook. However, we need to stop putting our hope in these physical things and place it in the God of all hope. Paul reminded the wealthy in 1 Timothy 6:17 not to, "Fix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, who richly supplies us with all things to enjoy." America in many ways has lost sight of God, placing its hope on money, government, leaders, etc... If we truly want to make a difference, it will have to be in the hearts of our family, friends, neighbors, and coworkers with the gospel of Christ.

I, like many other Americans, will spend time this weekend with friends and family watching the night sky be lit up with beautiful colors. While we may be proud to be an American, we should be even more honored to be a Christian, knowing that our true citizenship is in heaven (Philippians 3:20).

Have a blessed week!
